The Burnt Offering

Leviticus 1:2-17; 6:8-13 (page 69)

We need to grasp the _____ of our sin
AND
the _____ of God's grace.

Looking at what is involved with these burnt offerings and other rituals in Leviticus will help us _____ what we now have and who we are in Christ.

Structure of the text (Leviticus 1:2-17 and 6:8-13)

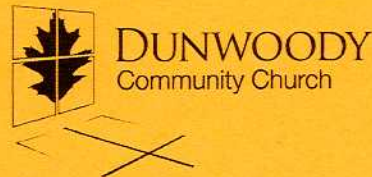

Summary questions and thoughts:

Why does this have to be _____ ?

God relentlessly extends mercy with justice to _____.
This reveals his loving character and desire for restoration and intimate relationship.

We want a god that doesn't make demands on us; that just forgives us and looks the other way like a fun-loving granddaddy. But that is not who the true God is.

Our response is to offer God _____ worship.
